SCHADE FAMILY HONORED AT LUNCHEON

(Sequim, WA) Nancy Schade, General Manager of the Quality Inn and Suites was honored at a surprise luncheon today. Current employees of the Quality Inn, sister property, the Holiday Inn Express and owners Bret and Trisha Wirta were there to acknowledge her six years of successes and hard work. Nancy was named Woman of the Year by Choice Hotels International in 2010 and was key to the Quality Inn being named a Choice Hotels Platinum property for the last four years in a row. Also recognized was daughter Jennifer Schade, for her extraordinary customer service and husband Bill Schade, for his skills in helping to keep the hotel looking like new. Also acknowledged was retiring Head of Maintenance, Ervin Reed who could not attend. Owner Bret Wirta said, "I will miss Nancy, her family and Ervin. Their dedication and skills were a big reason why the Quality Inn and Suites of Sequim has been consistently ranked in the top 3% for cleanliness and customer satisfaction out of all the thousands of Choice Hotels worldwide." The Schade's plans include travel and attending various family functions throughout the summer. Nancy will continue her relationship with Wirta Hospitality Worldwide as a consultant. "Nancy is an incredible leader. We are thankful that she will still be available to teach others" Wirta said.
